CLOSE UPS

The effect of close-up shots of desirable parts of the female anatomy derive their appeal either in the quality and proportion of the part under examination, or the skill with which the technician behind the camera captures the image. I have asked Ian Potter, Michel Moreau, Dwight Fox and the notorious Fanny to offer their contributions on this subject and arrayed before you over these all too few pages are their efforts. All are worthy of a place on your wall and demonstrate admirably why women are worth getting excited about.

Cynthia

Photographs by Rupert Daines

Cynthia has a burning ambition which should be achieved with very little effort on her part, judging by the sensuality and eroticism she manages to exude in these pouting poses. She wants to be a sex-kitten.

'I would just love to be someone's pampered escort. Treated to mink coats.

fabulous gems and precious metals – my every wish come true.
'And no man would have to worry about my making startling revelations to the press about our love-life . . . I would be discretion personified. I have no time for these 'ladies' who have published their so-called memoirs for gain – to me, that is no better than prostitution. I certainly couldn't sleep at night
after doing that. ♣

Heights of Ecstasy

Photographs by Byron Newman

Byron Newman photographs sexual images in his own inimitable way. In this sensational six page portfolio he touches on voyeurism, lesbianism and pure full frontalism.

The whore and the dummy, described by Mr Newman as a very 'still' life, has lesbian qualities.

The climax to the Newman show is more blatant and proves conclusively ...

... that ecstasy is definitely a pair of open legs and a beckoning smile. ♣

Jill

Photographs by Rupert Daines

Most of the young ladies who take part in our photo sessions collapse in a heap and call for long cool reviving drinks afterwards, our lensmen being such demanding perfectionists, and none more so than Rupert Daines. Great was our surprise then when Jill was still buzzing and energetic after the long session which produced these magnificent studies.

We demanded an explanation.

'If you think that was hard work,' said Jill, 'you ought to try looking after a couple of hundred or so businessmen on a transatlantic flight from London to California which I do as an air hostess. First, every one of them wants exclusive personal attention, the kind they're used to from their secretaries. "Get me some cigarettes please, some coffee, drinks, magazines" – I honestly wouldn't be surprised if one of them wanted me to go and hold his cock for him when he went for a piss.

'And of course, there's that. They all become Romeos when they leave home – in their ill-fitting suits, paunches threatening to burst waistbands. They think we're nothing but airborne escorts.

'Hell, we don't mind a good fuck, same as everyone else, but no-one would expect them to leave their precious board meetings and nip into the executive bog for a quickie, now would they?

'So after that little lot, lazing here getting my picture taken is a piece of Black Forest Gateau. ♣
